Container Element Box with Indigo Accent Border

Child elements inside containers are positioned relative to container bounds, enabling reusable cards, banners, and summary boxes. Long descriptions wrap automatically inside the container boundaries without overflowing the page margins.